Chickens

The possibility of allowing chickens in town was discussed, and how an ordinance would be enforced.

Cindy Marsh, 749 Shady Lane. Thinks it would be incorporated into UZO like the horse ordinance was and Area Plan would enforce.

Stoplight Letters

It was brought up at the last meeting about the town sending letters to INDOT in favor of a stoplight at Dayton Road and 38. Jen thinks it might mean more if the town lead the drive. She can put in on Facebook and the website. Discussion followed about putting information on the bills, enclosing an additional sheet with the bill, or sending something separately. Discussed providing sample letters.

Cindy Marsh 749 Shady Lane. Suggested sending postcards might be more cost effective.

Marshal Taylor asked if CCMG money could be used for a stoplight.

Logistics of a Letter Drive were discussed.

Nancy Oswald 762 Shady Lane. Suggested an area on a letter for additional comments.

Stan made a motion to spend up to $500 to put an insert in the water bill. Ron seconded. Roll call vote. Marc – yes. Stan – yes. Ron – yes. Jen – yes. 4-0.

Will collect letters through the end of February.

Jen adjourned the meeting.
